

The Alligator Farm

One morning, Shane and Mom went to the alligator farm. They looked around at alligators sleeping in the sunshine and many different kinds of birds sitting in the trees above.

“Oh my! There are a lot of alligators,” said Mom.

Shane’s eyes started to shine when she saw the zip line. “Let’s go!” said Shane. “Mom, it will be fun to glide and slide over the alligators!”

“I’m coming,” said Mom. She thought it would not be fun to glide and slide over the alligators.

The sleeping alligators began waking up and watching Shane and Mom glide and slide over them. Mom was shaking! Then one alligator who had been hiding in the swamp jumped up and snapped. “Ahhh!” Mom cried as she glided over him.

“Wasn’t that fun!” said Shane when they got off the zip line.

“Oh yes,” said Mom, faking a big smile. “That was a lot of fun.”
