

The Vacation

“I am so happy to be on vacation,” said Dad.

“After I carry everything to the beach, I am going to relax.
I am ready for some relaxation!”

Mom said, “We will sit in this section of the beach. It is the perfect location because it is right near the lifeguard station!”

The family set up the umbrella and beach chairs. Then Henry said,
“I have a question! When can I go in the water?”

“As soon as you have on some suntan lotion,” said Mom.
“Then we have to blow up the floatation tubes.”

When the floatation tubes were ready and everyone had on suntan lotion, Mom sat in her chair and said, “Now I can read my book. It is a great fiction story. There is a lot of exciting action in the story!”

“There is going to be a lot of exciting action
in the water!” said Dad.
“Let’s go, kids!”
